

Jokes are an essential part of any language and culture and are a great way of understanding the target language through the play on words and a culture's sense of humour.

Every two weeks a joke in English is posted on the notice board of our department for our students to laugh and learn English at the same time.

Try to find out its meaning. If not, ask your teacher of English.

GOOD LAUGH!!!!!!

